

Have a complaint?

We want to give you the best possible service. However, if at any point you become unhappy or concerned about the service we have provided then you should inform us immediately, so that we can do our best to resolve the problem.

In the first instance it may be helpful to contact the person who is working on your case to discuss your concerns and we will do our best to resolve any issues at this stage.

If you are then still unhappy, please contact our Complaints Manager and principal by writing, marking your letter "Private and Confidential" and addressed to "Mr Muhammed Abdullah, Complaints Manager/Principal" and he will endeavour to investigate your complaint with the individual Fee Earner and Department Supervisor and/or a Partner.

You can also raise your concerns with the Solicitors Regulation Authority by visiting their website: <https://www.sra.org.uk/consumers/problems/report-solicitor.page#how-complain>.

What do to if your complaint is not resolved

The Legal Ombudsman can help you if we are unable to resolve your complaint ourselves. They will look at your complaint independently and it will not affect how we handle your case.

Before accepting a complaint for investigation, the Legal Ombudsman will check that you have tried to resolve your complaint with us first. If you have, then you must take your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman:

- Within six months of receiving a final response to your complaint and

- No more than six years from the date of act/omission; or
- No more than three years from when you should reasonably have known there was cause for complaint.

If you would like more information about the Legal Ombudsman, please contact them.
